Dear Friends,

Welcome to the Boston premiere of L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato performed by the world-renowned Mark Morris Dance Group. Boston is one of the few cities in the world to mount this masterpiece choreographed by Mark Morris. This production is co-presented by The Wang Center and Dance Umbrella, the first of many exciting collaborations. As two not-for-profit organizations, The Wang Center and Dance Umbrella recognize the importance of different arts organizations, big and small, working together to celebrate the arts during these difficult economic times. We must support each other in projects that continue to strengthen the arts as a vital part of our community.

We are especially grateful for the generosity of AT&T, The Boston Globe and WCVB-TV who join us in making this wonderful evening of dance possible.

On behalf of The Wang Center and Dance Umbrella, we thank you, our patrons, and all the corporations who are helping us to present such fabulous collaborative productions.

Enjoy the performance!

Best wishes,

Josiah A. Spaulding, Jr.

Give Yourself A Lifetime Achievement Award.

The Lincoln Town Car is such an appropriate reward for your lifetime of accomplishment, you might even consider an acceptance speech. The Town Car certainly gives you plenty to talk about, beginning with the traditional spaciousness of its interior. You could go on about Lincoln's commitment to safety technology that includes standard ABS brakes and dual air bags.* And you'll never run out of compliments for its proliferation of elegant appointments. Finally, you might praise the powerful V-8 engine, and the smoothness of that legendary quiet ride. And every Lincoln is backed by the Lincoln Commitment, a comprehensive ownership benefits program that includes 24-hour Roadside Service Assistance.

So deliver that acceptance speech if you like. And please...try to keep it under three minutes.

PART THE FIRST

L'ALLEGRO

Accompagnato

Hence, loathèd Melancholy,
Of Cerberus, and blackest midnight born
In Stygian Cave forlorn
'Mongst horrid shapes, and shrieks, and sights unholy,
Find out some uncouth cell,
Where brooding Darknes spreads his jealous wings,
And the night-Raven sings;
There under Ebon shades, and low-brow'd rocks,
As ragged as thy Locks,
In dark Cimmerian desert, ever dwell.

IL PENSEROSO

Accompagnato

Hence, vain deluding Joys,
Dwell in Some idle brain,
And fancies fond with gaudy shapes possess,
As thick and numberless
As the gay motes that people the Sun Beams,
Or likest hovering dreams
The fickle Pensioners of Morpheus' train.

L'ALLEGRO

Air

Come, thou, Goddess fair and free,
In heav'n yclept Euphrosyne;
And by men heart-easing Mirth,
Whom lovely Venus, at a birth,
With two sister-Graces more,
To ivy-crowned Bacchus bore.

IL PENSEROSO

Air

Come rather, Goddess, sage and holy;
Hail, divinest Melancholy,
Whose saintly visage is too bright
To hit the sense of human sight;
Thee bright-hair'd Vesta long of yore,
To solitary Saturn bore.

L'ALLEGRO

Air

Haste thee, nymph, and bring with thee
Jest and youthful Jollity,
Quips and cranks, and wanton wiles,
Nods, and becks, and wreathèd smiles,
Such as hang on Hebe's cheek,
And love to live in dimple sleek;
Sport, that wrinkled Care derides,
And Laughter, holding both his sides.

Chorus

Haste thee, nymph, and bring with thee
Jest, and youthful Jollity;
Sport, that wrinkled Care derides,
And Laughter, holding both his sides.

L'ALLEGRO

Air

Come, and trip it as you go,
On the light fantastic toe.

Chorus

Come, and trip it as you go,
On the light fantastic toe.

IL PENSEROSO

Accompagnato

Come, pensive Nun, devout and pure,
Sober, steadfast, and demure;
All in a robe of darkest grain,
Flowing with majestic train.

Arioso

Come, but keep thy wonted state,
With even step, and musing gait;
And looks commercing with the skies,
Thy rapt soul sitting in thine eyes.

Accompagnato

There held in holy passion still,
Forget thy self to marble, till
With a sad leaden downward cast
Thou fix them on the earth as fast.

Arioso

And join with thee calm Peace and Quiet,
Spare Fast, that oft with gods doth diet,
And hears the Muses in a ring
Round about Jove's altar sing.

Chorus

Join with thee calm Peace and Quiet,
Spare Fast that oft with gods doth diet.

L'ALLEGRO

Recitative

Hence, loathèd Melancholy,
In dark Cimmerian desert ever dwell
But haste thee, Mirth, and bring with thee
The mountain nymph, sweet Liberty.
And if I give thee honour due,
Mirth, admit me of thy crew

Air

Mirth, admit me of thy crew
To live with her, and live with thee,
In unreprovèd pleasures free;
To hear the lark begin his flight,
And singing startle the dull night;
Then to come in spite of sorrow,
And at my window bid good morrow.
Mirth, admit me of thy crew

IL PENSEROSO

Accompagnato

First, and chief, on golden wing,
The cherub Contemplation bring;
And the mute Silence hist along,
'Less Philomel wil deign a song,
In her sweetest, saddest plight,
Smoothing the rugged brow of Night.

Air

Sweet bird, that shun'st the noise of folly,
Most musical, most melancholy!
Thee, chantress, oft the woods among,
I woo to hear thy even-song.
Or, missing thee, I walk unseen,
On the dry smooth-shaven green,
To behold the wand'ring moon
Riding near her highest noon.
Sweet bird: Da Capo.

L'ALLEGRO

Recitative

If I give thee honour due,
Mirth, admit me of thy crew!

Air

Mirth, admit me of thy crew!
To listen how the hounds and horn
Cheerly rouse the slumb'ring morn,
From the side of some hoar hill,
Through the high wood echoing shrill.

IL PENSEROSO

Air

Oft, on a plat of rising ground,
I hear the far-off Curfew sound,
Over some wide-water'd shore,
Swinging slow, with sullen roar;
Or if the air will not permit,
Some still removèd place will fit,
Where glowing embers through the room
Teach light to counterfeit a gloom.

Air

Far from all resort of Mirth,
Save the cricket on the hearth,
Or the bellman's drowsy charm,
To bless the doors from nightly harm.

L'ALLEGRO

Recitative

If I give thee honour due,
Mirth, admit me of thy crew!

Air

Let me wander, not unseen
By hedgerow elms, on hillocks green:
There the ploughman, near at hand,
Whistles over the furrow'd land,
And the milkmaid singeth blithe,
And the mower whets his scythe,
And every shepherd tells his tale
Under the hawthorn in the dale.

IL MODERATO

Air

Each action will derive new grace
From order, measure, time, and place;
Till Life the goodly structure rise
In due proportion to the skies.

L'ALLEGRO

Accompagnato

Mountains, on whose barren breast
The lab'ring clouds do often rest;
Meadows trim with daisies pied,
Shallow brooks, and rivers wide
Tow'rs and battlements it sees,
Bosom'd high in tufted trees.

Air

Or let the merry bells ring round,
And the jocund rebeck sound
To many a youth, and many a maid,
Dancing in the checquer'd shade.

Chorus

And young and old come forth to play
On a sunshine holyday,
till the livelong daylight fail,
Thus past the day, to bed they creep,
By whisp'ring winds soon lull'd asleep.

PART THE SECOND

IL PENSEROSO

Accompagnato

Hence, vain deluding Joys,
The brood of Folly without father bred
How little you bested,
Or fill the fixed mind with all your toys!
Oh! let my lamp, at midnight hour,
Be seen in some high lonely tow'r,
Where I may oft out-watch the Bear
With thrice-great Hermes, or unsphere
The spirit of Plato to unfold
What worlds, or what vast regions hold
Th'immortal mind that hath forsook
Her mansion in this fleshly nook.

Air

Sometimes let gorgeous Tragedy
In scepter'd pall come sweeping by,
Presenting Thebes, or Pelops' line,
Or the tale of Troy divine;
Or what, though rare, of later age
Ennobled hath the buskin'd stage.

Recitative

Thus, Night oft see me in thy pale career,
Till unwelcome Morn appear.

L'ALLEGRO

Solo

Populous cities please me then,
And the busy hum of men.

Chorus

Populous cities please us then.
And the busy hum of men,
Where throngs of knights and barons Bold,
In weeds of peace high triumphs hold;

With store of ladies, whose bright eyes
Rain influence, and judge the prize
Of wit, or arms, while both contend

Populous cities: Da Capo.

Air

There let Hymen oft appear
In saffron robe, with taper clear,
And pomp, and feast, and revelry,
With mask, and antique pageantry;
Such sights as youthful poets dream
On summer eves by haunted stream.

IL PENSEROSO

Accompagnato

Me, when the sun begins to fling
His flaring beams, me goddess bring
To arched walks of twilight groves,
And shadows brown that Sylvan loves;
There in close covert by some brook,
Where no profaner eye may look.

Air

Hide me from day's garish eye,
While the bee with honey'd thigh,
Which at her flow'ry work doth sing,
And the waters murmuring,
With such consorts as they keep
Entice the dewy-feather'd sleep;
And let some strange mysterious dream
Wave at his wings in airy stream
Of lively portraiture display'd,
Softly on my eyelids laid.
Then as I wake, sweet music breathe,
Above, about, or underneath,
Send by some spirit to mortals good,
Or th'unseen genious of the wood.

L'ALLEGRO

Air

I'll to the well-trod stage anon,
If Johnson's learned sock be on;
Or sweetest Shakespeare, Fancy's child,
Warble his native wood-notes wild.

Air

And ever against eating cares,
Lap me in soft Lydian airs;
Sooth me with immortal verse,
Such as the meeting soul may pierce
In notes, with many a winding bout
Of linkèd sweetness long drawn out;
With wanton heed, and giddy cunning,
The melting voice through mazes running,
Untwisting all the chains that tie
The hidden soul of harmony.

IL MODERATO

Duet

As steals the morn upon the night,
And melts the shades away:
So truth does Fancy's charm dissolve,
And rising reason puts to flight
The fumes that did the mind involve,
Restoring intellectual day.

IL PENSEROSO

Recitative

But let my due feet never fail
To walk the studious cloisters' pale,
And love the high-embowed roof,
With antique pillars' massy proof,
And story'd windows richly dight,
Casting a dim religious light.

Chorus

There let the pealing organ blow
To the full voic'd choir below,
In service high and anthem clear!
And let their sweetness, through mine ear,
Dissolve me into ecstasies,
And bring all Heav'n before mine eyes!

Air

May at last my weary age
Find out the peaceful hermitage,
The hairy gown and mossy cell,
Where I may sit and rightly spell
Of ev'ry star that Heav'n doth shew,
And ev'ry herb that sips the dew;
Till old experience do attain
To something like prophetic strain.

Solo

These pleasures, Melancholy, give,
And I with thee will choose to live.

Chorus

These pleasures, Melancholy, give.
And we with thee will choose to live.

L'ALLEGRO

Air

Opheus' self may heave his head
From golden slumbers on a bed
Of heap'd Elysian flow'rs, and hear
Such strains as would have won the ear
Of Pluto, to have quite set free
His half-regain'd Eurydice.

Air

These delights if thou canst give,
Mirth, with thee I mean to live.

Chorus

These delights if thou canst give,
Mirth, with thee we mean to live.

GEORGE FRIDERIC HANDEL was born in Halle, Germany on February 23, 1685 and died in London, on April 14, 1759. He began studying music over the initial opposition of his father, a barber-surgeon. In 1702 he entered the university in Halle to read law and at the same time held the probationary post of organist at the Domkirche. The next year Handel left for Hamburg, where he played violin and later harpsichord at the opera and had the operas Almira and Nero produced. From 1706 to 1709, he travelled in Italy, visiting the principal cities and meeting the leading composers. He was appointed Kapellmeister to the Elector of Hanover in 1710, but left almost immediately on a leave of absence for London where Rinaldo was produced with great success the next year. He settled in London in 1712 and never returned to his post in Hanover. Between 1712 and 1715 he produced four operas, and in 1713 composed a Te Deum and Jubilate to celebrate the Peace of Utrecht, receiving a life pension of 200 pounds from Queen Anne. On her death in 1714 the Elector of Hanover succeeded to the throne as George I, and apparently took a lenient view of his former Kapellmeister's truancy, for Handel's pension was soon doubled. Handel's most prolific period as an opera composer began with the founding of the Royal Academy of Music in 1720, and over the next 20 years he produced more than 30 works. Difficulties arose from the formation of partisan factions around himself and his rival Bononcini and were aggravated by strife between his two leading ladies, Faustina and Cuzzoni. The popular success of The Beggar's Opera in 1728 made matters worse, and in that year the Royal Academy of Music went bankrupt. Handel continued to produce operas, acting as his own impresario, but rival factions, now of a political nature, again undermined his success, and in the 1730s he increasingly turned to oratorio. Messiah, performed in Dublin in 1742, was followed by 12 more oratorios. Handel continued to appear in public as a conductor and organist, playing concertos between the parts of his oratorios, but his health declined and he spent his last years in blindness.

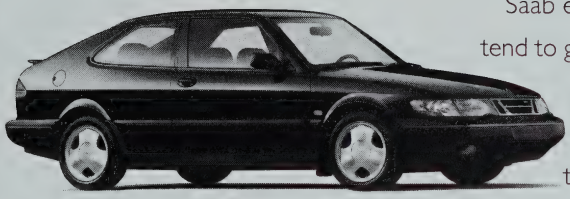
DRIVE IN THE FACE OF CONVENTION.



Saab engineers, like Saab drivers, tend to go their own way. For example, the two striking departures from conventional thinking you see here.

First, the new 900 SE Turbo Coupe. Its stiffened sports suspension and 185-horsepower, intercooled turbo engine definitely qualify it as a road rocket.

On the other hand, its advanced safety features also make it one of the most socially responsible cars on the road today.

Then there's the new 900 Convertible. Like other droptops, it gives you the sun, the sky, and the wind in your hair.

Unlike others, when the roof goes up it turns into a spacious, well insulated touring car. With a foldable backseat for two full-size passengers and an electrically heated glass rear window.

gium. Mr. Morris was named a Fellow of the MacArthur Foundation in 1991.

MARK MORRIS DANCE GROUP was formed in 1980 and gave its first concert in New York City that year. In addition to touring widely, the Group has been the subject of television specials for PBS "Dance in America" series and London Weekend Television's "South Bank Show." From 1988-1991, the Group was the resident company of the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels, Belgium. Upcoming projects include a film collaboration with cellist Yo-Yo Ma using Bach's Third Suite for Unaccompanied Cello, and appearances at the American Dance Festival and, for the third consecutive year, at the Edinburgh International Festival.

CRAIG SMITH (Conductor) is the founder and artistic director of Emmanuel Music in Boston, and from 1988-1991 was Permanent Guest Conductor of the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie/Opera National in Brussels. His diverse conducting activities with Emmanuel Music have featured the complete cycle of Bach Cantatas in their liturgical context, the American premieres of Handel's Atalanta and Max Reger's Serenade For Orchestra and the world premiere of John Harbison's Violin Concerto. Mr. Smith's collaborations with Mark Morris include Handel's L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato; Purcell's Dido and Aeneas and Vivaldi's Gloria. His collaborations with director Peter Sellars include Giulio Cesare at Pepsico Summerfare and Théâtre de la Monnaie, The Mikado at the Chicago Lyric Opera, Orlando at American Repertory Theatre in Cambridge, Gershwin's Hang On To Me at the Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis, and Brecht/Weill Das Kleine Mahagonny at the Brooklyn Academy of Music. Their Pepsico Summerfare productions of Cosi Fan Tutte, Le Nozze di Figaro and Don Giovanni were recently filmed in Vienna and televised on PBS "Great Performances" and seen throughout Europe, and have recently been released on video compact disc by Decca Records.

THE EMMANUEL MUSIC ENSEMBLE was formed in 1970 by Music Director Craig Smith to perform the complete cycle of sacred cantatas of J.S. Bach in the liturgical context for which they were written. According to Boston Globe music critic

I've built about 65 golf courses since I started back in 1960. As I build a course, I really don't have a whole vision of what's going to happen when I start. I walk the land to get a feel for it, because I make all my designs in the dirt. I don't know how to punch a computer and I'm too old to learn.

Golf is a mental game, and golfers are always nervous. So I constantly try to work on their idea of how a hole ought to be played. Nowadays the only ally I have is water; that's the only hazard they can't recover from. Sand is easy, but if you go into water you know what kind of lie you have down there. People say there's a lot of water on the Tournament Players Club,® and that's true, but then there are a lot of good golfers out there too.

The American Express® Card is welcomed at all these TPC™ golf clubs, and it does just as much for the bad golfer as it does for the good golfer.

American Express reminds you the Card is welcomed at all kinds of golf courses. (And Pete would like to remind you to keep your head down.)

Richard Dyer, "The project at Emmanuel is one that has immeasurable impact on the musical life of our city." The group has continued the Bach Cantata Series and expanded its repertoire to include Handel operas and oratorios; Schütz choral works; premieres of works by John Harbison; annual Mozart birthday concerts to benefit the AIDS Action Committee; and series of the complete lieder of Schumann, and the complete piano, vocal and chamber works of Debussy and Brahms. Emmanuel Music has embarked on innovative collaborations with the Mark Morris Dance Group, Director Peter Sellars, and Dance Umbrella of Boston. Emmanuel Music made its European debut at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels in 1989 and was featured on CBS "Sunday Morning" with Charles Kuralt in April of 1988. The group is currently recording the entire choral works of Heinrich Schütz for Koch International, and with Koch International is embarking on a project to record works written especially for Emmanuel Music by composer John Harbison. Emmanuel Music is ensemble-in-residence at Emmanuel Church and the C. Walsh Theatre at Suffolk University.

ADRIANNE LOBEL (Set Designer) has designed the sets for Mark Morris' L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato, The Hard Nut and Le Nozze di Figaro, all of which premiered at the Théâtre Royal de la Monnaie in Brussels where she also designed Lohengrin, directed by Anja Silja. She collaborates often with Peter Sellars. Some of their productions include Nixon in China; Cosi Fan Tutte and The Marriage of Figaro, which have been seen all over Europe and the U.S.; and The Magic Flute at Glyndebourne. She is currently designing the sets for Kurt Weill's Street Scene for Houston Grand Opera, directed by Francesca Zambello. Her production design credits include Five Corners directed by Tony Bill and Life with Mikey directed by James Lapine.

JAMES F. INGALLS (Lighting Designer) has designed several works for Mark Morris incuding L'Allegro, il Penseroso ed il Moderato, Dido and Aeneas, The Hard Nut, the first White Oak Dance Project tours, and Ein Herz for the Paris Opera Ballet. He designed Ola Chica for William Whitener and Ballet Hispanico, and Shoulder to Shoulder for Joachim Schlömer in London. He also designs theater and opera in Europe and the United States.

Who's Who in the Company

DANCE UMBRELLA was founded in 1979 by Jeremy Alliger, and is now the largest year-round presenter of contemporary and culturally diverse dance in New England. Through ground-breaking presentations, Dance Umbrella has built an annual contemporary dance audience of over 35,000. In addition to presenting hundreds of individual artists and companies, Dance Umbrella is nationally recognized for its unique gatherings of artists in presentations such as the Israeli-Jewish American Dance Festival, Festival of Aerial Dance, the Native American Dance Festival and the Jazz Tap Hip Hop Festival. Dance Umbrella's national model Dance Company in Residence program, inaugurated with the Mark Morris Dance Group, includes a commissioning project, a teacher training program, and over 100 classes and workshops for public schools, community organizations, and local professional dancers. Dance Umbrella is committed to working with artists who share its mission to broaden the definition of dance both through artistry and through educational programs that promote cultural understanding and acceptance.

MAKING A CARD CALL? A COLLECT CALL? NO BIG PRODUCTION, JUST ONE SIMPLE NUMBER.

When you make a call, whether you're on Broadway, off Broadway, or off anywhere else for that matter, now all you have to remember is one number: 1 800 CALL ATT.℠ With 1 800 CALL ATT, you can use any card to make your calls or call collect–it does both. Think about it, all the drama, all the excitement of every call, in one simple act.
